Q&A

Hey there!

Yep, that's me! I'm Nicola, the vibrant personality behind the camera with an insatiable passion for people and photography. If you're looking for someone who can capture life's beautiful moments, you've found the right gal!

I first dipped my toes into the world of photography when I tried out my best friend's camera in school. It was like love at first click! -Oh how cheesy! off to college I went camera in hand, and the rest is history. I believe every person has a unique story to tell through their eyes, smiles, and even their quirks. My goal is to capture those moments that make you, well, you!

But let me tell you a little secret—I'm not just a photographer; I'm a creative soul too! When I'm not behind the lens, you'll find me exploring new places, creating some kind of art or embroidery, and embracing the simple pleasures life has to offer.

Whether you're planning a wedding, looking for a captivating portrait, or simply want to freeze a moment in time, I'm here to bring your vision to life. With my passion for people and my trusty camera by my side, we'll embark on a journey of laughter, candid moments, and heartwarming memories.

So, let's capture your story together, one frame at a time. Reach out, and let's create magic!
